Wearing protective gear

Teaching Nippon Kempo form

Nippon Kempo is a Japanese martial art developed in 1932 by Mr. Muneomi Sawayama. It is based on techniques of striking and kicking (atemi-waza), blocking (uke-waza), throwing (nage-waza), reverse joint locks (kansetsu-gyakutori-waza) and ground combat (ne-waza). It uses techniques derived from other arts including judo, jujutsu, aikido, karate, kung fu, boxing and wrestling. As protective gear, headgear, chest protector, gloves and groin protector are used. Wearing these gears, Practitioners can fight in full-contact in safety.
